IORPS II - WHAT WILL IT MEAN FOR IRISH PENSION SCHEMES?

The revised European Pensions Directive was passed into EU law in January 2017 and will have to become Irish law by January 2019. This breakfast meeting will look at the main aspects of the Directive, how it came about, the impact it will have on Irish Pension Schemes and what the next steps are.

Joint IAPF/IIPM Breakfast Meeting

Venue: Imperial Hotel, South Mall, Cork.

Date: Wednesday 10th May 2017

Time: 7.45 a.m.

Fee: €20 per person

Presentation by: Jerry Moriarty, CEO, IAPF

Jerry Moriarty is CEO of the Irish Association of Pension Funds (IAPF) having joined as Director of Policy in 2007.

The IAPF represents pension savers and aims to ensure people in Ireland can have secure, fair and simple pensions. The IAPF educates, represents and informs its members who comprise pension schemes and the service providers to those schemes. These pension schemes provide retirement security to over 260,000 employees, pay pensions to over 100,000 people and are responsible for some €115.8bn in retirement savings.

Jerry was previously Head of Compliance with the Pensions Authority for 6 years. He has also worked with Sun Life Financial of Canada in the UK and Irish Life in Dublin.

Jerry is a Vice Chairperson of PensionsEurope and is Chair of the PensionsEurope DC Committee.
